SHKF named “Caring Company”

Hong Kong, 11 July 2016 – Sun Hung Kai Financial (“SHKF”) has been honoured “Caring Company Award 2015/16” by the Hong Kong Council of Social Service (HKCSS), recognising SHKF’s commitment to “Caring for the Community”, “Caring for the Employees” and “Caring for the Environment”. This marks the 14th straight time SHKF has received the “Caring Company Logo”, which was launched in 2002.

Mr William Leung, Chief Executive Officer, SHKF, said, “Caring Company accolade is an honourable recognition of our efforts to encourage community services. It is also a fulfilling experience for us as a core member in the financial sector to collaborate with social service organisations to carry out programmes that benefit members of the community.” Launched by HKCSS in 2002, the Caring Company Scheme aims at cultivating good corporate citizenship by encouraging strategic partnerships between the business and social service sectors to create more cross-sector community projects.
